Vienna, February 5. N. S. Monſieur Albani, who lately returned to this City from Dreſden, is preparing to ſet out for Rome, unleſs he receives Advice of the Pope's Recovery before the Day which is appointed for his Departure. The Evacuation of Commachio, and other Affairs which he had Inſtructions to negotiate at this Court, will be committed to the Direction of Monſignior Piazzi, the Pope's Nuncio. His Imperial Majeſty hath ſignified to the ſeveral Potentates of the Alliance his Reſolution of reinforcing the Army on the Rhine with ten thouſand Men, together with the neceſſary Artillery and Ammunition; and it is hoped the Princes of the Empire will be animated by his Example, and unite their Efforts to oppoſe the Common Enemy. We have received from Hungary a Confirmation of the late Action of General Sickingen, which informs us that the Imperialiſts had, with a very inconſiderable Loſs, entirely defeated a Body of the Enemy, in number much Superior to them, that they had killed or made Priſoners of War near three thouſand of their Men, and taken twenty ſeven Colours and Standards, beſides ſeveral other Trophies of Victory. Theſe Advices add, that General de Croix, with fifteen hundred Men, had routed eight thouſand of the Hungarians, who were marching to ſurprize our Garriſons that are quartered in the Towns ſituated on the Mountains; but Prince Eugene's Regiment of Dragoons ſuffered very much in this Action; two of their Officers being taken Priſoners, were beheaded by the Malecontents, with ſix others, in Revenge of the Death of thoſe that were lately executed in the ſame manner by the Imperialiſts at Raab. Theſe Succeſſes of the Imperial Arms induce ſeveral of the Hungarians to ſubmit themſelves to the Emperor, and implore his Majeſty's Pardon and Protection. Our Advices concerning the King of Sweden are ſtill very uncertain; ſome Accounts ſay, that his Majeſty was advancing with an Army towards Poland, and others, that he continued at Bender; but we are adviſed from Conſtantinople, that the Ottoman Port is not enclined to favour his Intereſts, or do any thing that may create a Miſunderſtanding betwen the Grand Signior and the Czar of Muſcovy.

Hague, February 21. N. S. The States of Holland continue their Seſſion, and have this Day diſpoſed of ſeveral Places that were vacant in the Military Liſt. Major General Bernard is this Day ſet out for the Brill, in order to embark in the firſt Packet boat that Sails for England, with a Commiſſion from his Maſter the Duke of Holſtein to her Britannick Majeſty. Count Tilly left this Place on the 19th Inſtant, on his Return to his Command in Flanders, and ſeveral other General Officers are preparing to follow him. Monſieur Levingſton and Monſieur Bois-Maſſary, who were formerly apprehended for holding a Correſpondence with France, and have ſince that time been kept in Cuſtody in this Town, were yeſterday removed to the Priſon belonging to the Court of Juſtice. They write from France, that the Dutcheſs of Burgundy was delivered of a Prince, to whom they have given the Title of Duke of Anjou. We hear that the Muſcovites, taking Advantage of the Ice, had Stormed the Town of Elbing, and made the Garriſon,
